

CBF 4th Thursday Movie Nights Presents:

Local Food Network Night

- Guest Speaker
*-Judy Owsowitz (Terrapin Farms)
"Seed saving basics &
the importance of saving seeds"*
- Short, Inspiring Films
- Informational Tables &
Local Expertise

Think garden time. Think fun evening to exchange local food knowledge. Bring seeds to swap!

Table space available for those with information to share! Call our office to reserve a spot.

Local knowledge exchange & seed swap

Thursday, February 28th, 7-9pm

At FVCC, Arts and Technology Building- Room 139

All are welcome to this free event!

Citizens for a Better Flathead is a local non-profit committed to sustainable development, environmental stewardship, and the democratic process. You may have read about us in the paper or heard about us from your neighbor. Come join us for some friendly refreshments and share your ideas.

For more information, call our office (756-8993) or find us online at www.flatheadcitizens.org or www.facebook.com/CitizensforaBetterFlathead